PRODUCT SPECIFICATION & TECHNICAL DETAILS

Fitted with an ISO-A coupling, from world renowned manufacturer Stucchi, these non-slip coupling grips are labelled to allow simple, timesaving hose mounting and disconnecting in the field of use. This vibrant product enables even the most inexperienced staff to match any line fast and properly. This is an important safety aspect that should not be underestimated, especially when operating in challenging conditions.

Costly downtime and line mix-ups are now a thing of the past thanks to the colour coded KENNFIXX® hydraulic coupling grip system.
